[REDACTED]

I wish to place before Parliament my case regarding the ongoing battle and hassles to see my little boy. I have become a victim of circumstances, which is unjust and grossly one sided. Not only for myself, but my whole family. The mental anguish is at times extremely unbeatable. I've been arrested twice on accusations that I've broken AVO's - these are based on lies to POLICE - lots of dramatics and exaggerations.

She has turned up once at Woolworths (as Court Orders made) for exchange. Every time I would have to ring her and ask where she is. Her reply was always, I've not got my car, my cars broken down, mums got [REDACTED] asleep or that she just can't make it to Woolworths. She would invite me to come to her flat to collect [REDACTED] then as I was leaving, start screaming abuse and accusations. Then run to the police saying I had threatened her and she fears for her safety.

Is THIS ENTRAPMENT?

She denied me access once for 11 weeks and another time for 5 weeks. What was the sense of appearing in court on so many occasions to have these Court Orders in place, when she doesn't abide by them. It appears she can break Court Orders, but I get arrested because she makes these false accusations against me. Where is the justice-is there a law for one and not for the other?

This girl is extremely dysfunctional and appears to thrive on drama. When I used to ring re access or talk to [REDACTED], she would be in the background yelling foul language in front of [REDACTED]. She has a mental disorder Bipola, but on no medication. She was in Gissing House [REDACTED] after [REDACTED] birth and under an officer from mental health u/in [REDACTED].

Sometimes when I used to ring her she would be pleasant and co-operative - the next time she would be the direct opposite. I have stopped ringing, although Court Orders says I can (re access) to speak to [REDACTED], because I don't want my son to be subject to the abuse and language that is spoken in front of him.

This girl has had appointments made for her at Early Parenting in [REDACTED], but doesn't and hasn't kept the appointments. Docs are totally useless and unco-operative.

My mother took [REDACTED] to see our family Doctor, as she was worried about his health. So was I. On the advice of my aunty, who is a Pediatric Nursing Sister, to get a referral to see a Pediatrician. He was diagnosed by our doctor as having asthma, iron deficiency, malnourished and showing signs of neglect. She wouldn't have anything to do with it and denied me taking [REDACTED] Pediatrician. I would have thought Docs would have stepped in and made her take [REDACTED], in the best interest of the child's health. But to no avail - they went to visit her and said every things fine. My hands are tied as I try to do what is best for my son-his health and home lifestyle and mental stability. As a concerned father, I obviously don't have any rights.

Because I have never had any witnesses when she charges me for breaking AVOS, I now have to take a family member with me on exchange days. This is an extreme imposition as my parents both run businesses seven days a week.

- 1) I would like to ask the parliament, who is going to compensate me for the times I've missed out on seeing my son?
- 2) Who is going to compensate my huge solicitors bills? - That this girl has help create by her actions.
- 3) Who is going to listen to me as I endeavour to defend my character in the criminal court?
- 4) Who compensates my expenses to have Parent Testing Done?
- 5) Who compensates me for my ongoing anguish and concern I have for my son?

[REDACTED] is a perpetual liar-she lies to my Father, her solicitor, me, Centrelink and to the Police, and she gets away with it.

I feel the legal System, Docs, Mental Health and the Government have let my little boy and me down. Where is the justice? As I get further into debt by this whole situation, I also have to sit back and watch my only child brought up by a dysfunctional mother, from a dysfunctional family and background. I shudder to think what lies in store for him and me as he grows older.

I guess my compensation at the moment are his words "that he doesn't want to go back to Mummy's house, but wants to stay at Daddy's place" I know that he loves to be with me and my family, who don't have the need to raise voices and use foul language but live a good Christian and wholesome lifestyle, away from police and Court Houses.

I can't even go out and get a second or third job - as child support is only going to take more money off me. How on earth am I supposed to get ahead? Perhaps the Government has some answers for me.

As a taxpayer, on my own back I can and will fight this battle to prove that the environment that I can provide and raise my son in - at very little cost to my fellow taxpayers. [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] have been rotting the system for years. I have proof of this but centrelink don't want to know about it.

As a single male taxpayer, one doesn't have to be a Rhode Scholar to know that what I am stating is correct.

Is it any wonder so many single fathers opt to go on the dole, because of the financial burden placed on them by the current system.

Her expenses are NIL:

- 1) She has legal aid.
  - 2) Doesn't work - so no loss of wages.
  - 3) Rental assistance.
  - 4) Electricity assistance.
  - 5) Car assistance.
  - 6) Free medical.
  - 7) Near free prescriptions.
- and the list goes on.

My expenses are

- 1) Rent.
- 2) Full electricity.
- 3) Can't afford a telephone.
- 4) Full dental.
- 5) Child support.
- 6) Full price prescriptions.
- 7) Loss of wages due to her:-
  - a) Breaking Court Orders re access to [REDACTED] having to appear in Court all the time.
  - b) Driving to [REDACTED] to collect [REDACTED], she doesn't show.
  - c) Solicitors appointments and correspondence.
  - d) Arrested on accusations (very dramatic but false) of breaking AVO.
  - e) Attending Doc appointment with pediatrician for him to see [REDACTED] - she didn't show.
  - f) Numerous phone calls to her, Docs, child support and solicitor.
- 8) Solicitor fees are enormous - to represent me in court.

Yours Sincerely

Dear Kay.

attached is [REDACTED] case, which I spoke to you about in [REDACTED] and also your secretary on the phone.

The situation is getting progressively worse - [REDACTED] has not seen his little boy now for five weeks. The mother won't answer the phone when [REDACTED] or his Dad rings. [REDACTED] has become mediator, purely because she is so abusive over the phone to [REDACTED]. This is done while [REDACTED] is present in the room, and [REDACTED] doesn't want him to be subject to the language and angry outbursts.

We now know the mother was moved house - but don't know where. The last phone contact we had, was few weeks ago today. [REDACTED] rang re-access for Saturday. Little [REDACTED] answered the phone and was so excited to talk to [REDACTED] - asking "Poppy, can I come to your house - please Poppy" - then the phone was slammed down in [REDACTED] ear.

We don't know if there is anything you can do Kay!! But as you can imagine our son is going through hell, not knowing where his son is and not being able to see him.

Regards
[REDACTED]

I have re-written a note from [REDACTED] (attached)

To Tracy Webb.

I have rang Child Support and spoke to Janice, she told me I do not have a child support officer. I asked why, she replied, "I don't know". ???

~~_____~~ mother has demanded I have a DNA test done - as she has doubts that I am ~~_____~~ father. Another expense coming my way. I asked this Janice, if I am not ~~_____~~ natural father, where do I get my compensation? She told me, that if I am not, child support has nothing to do with it and that I would have to apply for civil action. Why is it, that this organisation is chasing me to pay child support on the allegation that I'm not the natural father? What a one way situation this is.

In the mothers affidavit, she claims all along that she knew I was not ~~_____~~ dad.

If I am not, how do I stop loving this little boy, who I have cared for and adored since his birth September 2000? I don't doubt for a moment this is untrue and I will fight to prove I am ~~_____~~ father. And I will do what I have to do in the Family Law Court, to prove my son is better off with me and my loving family, in a violent-free and caring environment.

At the moment, I don't know where he is, how he is coping, not seeing me and my extended family. Does he feel abandoned - I do!!

Yours sincerely
